A MESSAGE FROM FATHER MIKE:

This weekend the church celebrates the feast of Pentecost. The first Pentecost had the Holy Spirit descending upon the disciples and it became a whole new church. This weekend the Sacrament of Confirmation is being celebrated. Our young candidates are the new beginning of our churches. We are so proud of them and their parents. We look forward to seeing them in church each week and becoming more involved in our parishes. We've also been blessed this week to receive our new assistant, Father Rawell Toppo. He is a true gift and we are so grateful for his presence here. Happy Pentecost to everyone!

SACRAMENT OF CONFIRMATION: Please pray for our nine candidates being confirmed on Sunday: Benjamin Gombeda, Christopher Herbener, Jacob Kopko, Brooke Lenahan, Cassidy McDermott, Franklin Schoch, Dylan Venesky, Sydney Werger and Lukasz Widuch.

THE COMMUNITY LUNCH PROGRAM is in need of VOLUNTEERS for a program that feeds 40 people on Monday, Wednesday and Friday. You could volunteer for one day a week as a helper in the kitchen at St. Paul's Lutheran Parish Hall. No experience necessary! The program is also seeking people to volunteer to cook one day a month. To volunteer, please call Ed Gower, 570-401-9814 or Lunch Chairperson, Karen Allen, 570-956-5780.

Message from Mary Anne Malone, Parish Life Coordinator

Headlines today should read "Holy Spirit Descends on the Diocese of Scranton." In most parishes of the Diocese, Confirmation is being celebrated this weekend. Young people are coming together to receive the fullness of the Holy Spirit, the same Holy Spirit that descended on the Apostles on the first Pentecost. Pray for the young people of the Diocese of Scranton and especially for those in St. Patrick Parish, that the Holy Spirit will stir up in them his wondrous gifts. May they be strong and perfect Christians and witnesses of Jesus Christ! Comel, Holy Spirit!
