Message from Mary Anne Malone, Parish Life Coordinator

This past week we have experienced colder temperatures and even a bit of wet snow. The season of fall is deepening and we realize that the glorious days of growth and color are behind us for now. With the end of the warmer seasons, regeneration begins. This Sunday and next we witness another end and beginning. The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe brings the liturgical year to a close and the First Sunday of Advent opens a new year. Life is made of endings and beginnings. This is evident in the world around us and in the life of the Church. The Lord who sits as King forever will bless his people with peace.

As you pray at home this week, spend some time with the readings for next Sunday, November 28, the First Sunday of Advent:

Jeremiah 33:14-16 • 1 Thessalonians: 3:12-4:2 • Luke 21:25-28

DIOCESAN ANNUAL APPEAL: "Rising Together in Christ." To date, 46 of our Parishioners have made a pledge. Total raised so far is $7,615 of our $16,000 goal. To those who have made a pledge or contributed to the Appeal, we offer a SINCERE thank you. If you have not given, please contribute a gift in any amount to support the mission of the Church. Donate now at: annualappeal.org or mail your gift to Diocesan Annual Appeal, 300 Wyoming Avenue Scranton, PA 18505 or drop your Appeal gift in the weekly collection basket.

The Giving Tree Project begins this weekend. Please take tags from our Giving Tree, purchase the item on the tag, wrap the gift, and PLACE THE TAG ON THE WRAPPED GIFT so that the family can be identified. The number of the family receiving the gift is on the back of the tag. As a parish family, we are giving to families in our community! We are also supporting the Catherine McAuley House, a home in Plymouth, PA, which houses mothers and children in need of shelter. Monetary donations for the McAuley House and gift cards for families should be placed in an envelope with the tag taped to it and given directly to our Parish office or Joan Gower, rather than leaving envelopes under the tree. Thank you for your time, generosity, and effort in making St. Patrick Church a strong, giving family. The needs of some families are great and we are lessening some burdens. Call Joan Gower with any questions at 570-401-9815.

ROSE FOR LIFE: In Loving Memory of Ruth and Marty Quinn
by Rich and Liz Roque

To dedicate a Rose for Life, call Roseann Kolensky, 570-443-8688

Parish Offices will be closed Thanksgiving Day and Friday, November 26.
